The minor in Latin American studies enables students to combine study of a major field in the arts, humanities, sciences, or social sciences with a focused study of Latin American and Hispanic/Latino history, culture, and contemporary affairs. The program includes a major component of overseas study integrated with courses from various disciplines on campus. Overseas study programs offered in Latin America allow students to spend up to a year studying in curricular areas not covered on the Lewis & Clark campus.

The interdisciplinary minor is supervised by a group of faculty from several departments. This group coordinates the curriculum, advises students, supervises major research projects, and plans special events.

Students may apply for admission to the minor only after being accepted for an appropriate overseas study program.

Minor Requirements

A minimum of 24 semester credits, distributed as follows:

- One of the following:
  - HIST 141 Colonial Latin American History
  - HIST 142 Modern Latin American History
  - LAS 200 Latin American Cultural Studies
  - SOAN 266 Social Change in Latin America

- A minimum of one and a maximum of three international studies courses (language courses do not apply) taken while participating in a Lewis & Clark overseas study program in Latin America, hence a minimum of one semester in Latin America is required.

- Up to four additional courses from the following list. It is highly recommended that one of these be a Latin American literature course.
