Theatre
Chair: Stephen Weeks (fall 2012), Štěpán Šimek (spring 2013)
Administrative Assistant: Joyce Beeny
The Department of Theatre offers study in dramatic literature, theatre history, acting, directing, playwriting, design, technical theatre, and dance. Theatre students are required to participate broadly in the curriculum. The department maintains an active production program, which includes Main Stage productions (one each semester), one-act festivals in the Black Box theatre, late-night theatre, and dance performances. Theatre study at Lewis & Clark encourages excellence in all aspects of performance and production—both onstage and behind the scenes—combined with an understanding of the aesthetic, social, philosophical, and historical underpinnings of our collaborative art form. The department's goal is to educate artist-scholars who are well-rounded, well-trained, and intellectually informed. We see theatre and dance as integral parts of the liberal arts; our curriculum is designed to prepare broadly educated individuals for leadership roles in the arts and in society at large.

Our production program offers opportunities for student directors, designers, choreographers, dramaturgs, and playwrights, as well as student actors. The spring one-act festival, for example, normally consists of plays written, directed, acted, and designed by students. Opportunities for playwriting and choreography are available through formal classes, independent study, and the production program. Student dramaturgs assist with Main Stage productions. Main Stage theatre and dance performances are directed by faculty members and visiting artists. Plays are chosen for their contribution to theatre studies and to the life of Lewis & Clark, as well as for their responsiveness to issues of concern, either on campus or in society. Participation in our productions is open to the entire campus, and the department endorses a policy of color-blind casting.

Students also have the opportunity to participate in the regional Kennedy Center American College Theatre Festival (KCACTF). This festival showcases qualifying work in playwriting, directing, acting, devising, design, technical theatre, and scholarship.

Semester-long off-campus programs emphasizing theatre, art, and music are held in New York and in London. The New York program includes internships at institutions such as the Atlantic Theater Company (http://atlantictheater.org), Second Stage Theatre (http://2st.com), and Shen Wei Dance Arts (http://shenweidancearts.org).

Lewis & Clark students are encouraged to take advantage of the many opportunities to see professional theatre and dance in Portland. Internships with Portland theatres such as Portland Center Stage, Hand2Mouth Theatre, Third Rail Repertory, and others are available. Dance students will develop technical skills in conjunction with the study of aesthetics, history, and criticism. There is an annual student-choreographed dance performance. In addition, they will have the opportunity to participate in the annual Northwest regional American College Dance Festival (http://acdfa.org/) during spring semester. Student choreography can be presented for adjudication at the festival, which offers classes, workshops, and performances over four days.

Students majoring in theatre or minoring in theatre or dance must fulfill Lewis & Clark's creative arts requirement (http://docs.lclark.edu/catalog/archive/2012-2013/undergraduate/graduationrequirements/undergraduate/creative_artstext) outside the department—in art, creative writing, or music—and are strongly urged to pursue further studies in other areas of the arts.

Facilities
The theatre building at Lewis & Clark is one of the finest teaching facilities for theatre in the Pacific Northwest. It is an integrated facility designed to support a process-oriented program. The building contains the 225-seat Main Stage and a studio theatre (Black Box) with flexible seating arrangements for up to 125. It also houses complete production facilities, including a scenery shop, design studio, costume-construction room, dressing rooms, rehearsal areas, and the Green Room student lounge.

The Major Program
Students interested in a theatre major are encouraged to participate in theatre department courses or activities in their first year and to consult with a member of the theatre faculty. Students should declare the theatre major by the end of the sophomore year.
The theatre department offers a balanced major that gives students flexibility in determining an area of emphasis. All theatre majors are required to take courses in dramatic literature and theatre history, theatre theory, performance, design, and dance or movement. Students majoring in theatre must choose a concentration in dramatic literature/theatre history, performance, or design/technical theatre.

Senior majors complete a thesis project that is the culmination of their studies in theatre. This project may be based either in performance or research.

Major Requirements: Concentration in Literature/Theatre History

A minimum of 44 semester credits—including 16 in dramatic literature and theatre history, 16 in performance and design, 4 in theatre and performance theory, 2 in dance, 2 in theatre laboratory, and 4 in the capstone course—distributed as follows:

  - TH 234 Stage Lighting
  - TH 356 Devised Performance
- TH 252 Rehearsal and Performance: Dance Extravaganza or TH 499 Independent Study.

Honors

To qualify for departmental honors, students must demonstrate outstanding achievement in one or more of the major’s three concentrations: dramatic literature and theatre history, performance, or design and technical theatre. The required GPA is 3.500 overall and in the major. The primary measure of outstanding achievement is the senior thesis: the creative project (if applicable) and the written thesis. The Theatre faculty must agree that the creative project is worthy of departmental honors, and the instructor of record for the Senior Seminar (TH 450) must grade the written thesis at a B+ or higher.

Faculty

TH 104 Stage Makeup

Faculty: Edmonds.

Content: Principles and techniques of stage makeup, based on play and character analysis. Exercises to develop and refine the skill for actor, director, or makeup designer. Daily assignments, short paper critiquing the makeup skill of an off-campus production.

Prerequisites: None.

Usually offered: Alternate Years, spring semester.

Semester credits: 2.

TH 106 Fundamentals of Movement

Faculty: Davis.

Content: Use of guided movement explorations, partner work, readings, and discussion to explore structural and functional aspects of the body and anatomy with the goal of increasing efficiency of movement and physical coordination. Use of imagery supports dynamic alignment, breath, mobility/stability, relaxation, and partner work including massage, with a main focus on the skeletal system and elements of muscle and organ systems, as well as the relationship between the body and psychological/emotional patterns. Extensive journal writing.

Prerequisites: None.

Usually offered: Annually, fall and spring semester.

Semester credits: 4.

TH 107 Ballet I

Faculty: Davis.

Content: Introduction to basic ballet principles, steps, and vocabulary. Correct alignment, placement, mobility; increasing flexibility, balance, strength, coordination, control. Barre warm-up, center floor and traveling combinations, general introduction to ballet history and aesthetics. Readings in related historical material; written critique of live performance. Live music accompaniment.

Prerequisites: None.

Usually offered: Annually, fall semester.

Semester credits: 2.
TH 108 Contemporary Dance Forms I
Faculty: Davis.
Content: Introduction to modern and postmodern dance forms, physical techniques, and principles. Emphasis on the conceptual nature of contemporary dance since the 1960s. Movement skills and perspectives in relation to historic and aesthetic ideas that fostered them. Development of sound body mechanics, strength, flexibility, control, momentum, movement quality, musicality, personal movement resources. Viewing live and videotaped performances. Short readings on dance history and theory. Live music accompaniment.
Prerequisites: None.
Usually offered: Annually, fall semester.
Semester credits: 2.

TH 110A Theatre Laboratory
Faculty: Robins.
Content: Introduction to behind-the-scenes work in the theatre. Participation on production crews for all departmental productions in a given semester. Experiential learning in the scene and costume shops, on lighting and front-of-house crews. Introduction to the processes that transform the visions of directors and designers into realities on stage. Weekly organizational and instructional meetings, arranged work schedule, required safety orientations. May be repeated (as TH 110B) for up to two additional 1-credit semesters with lab-only requirements, not to exceed 4 total course credits per student.
Prerequisites: None.
Usually offered: Annually, fall and spring semester.
Semester credits: 2.

TH 110B Theatre Laboratory
Faculty: Robins.
Content: More behind-the-scenes work in the theatre. Participation on production crews for all departmental productions in a given semester. Experiential learning in the scene and costume shops, on lighting and front-of-house crews. Introduction to the processes that transform the visions of directors and designers into realities on stage. Weekly organizational and instructional meetings, arranged work schedule, required safety orientations. Taught each semester. 1 semester credit with lab only requirement. May be repeated once for credit.
Prerequisites: TH-110A.
Usually offered: Annually, fall and spring semester.
Semester credits: 1.

TH 113 Acting I: Fundamentals
Faculty: Šimek, Weeks.
Content: The fundamentals of acting, including physicalization, text analysis, objectives and actions, rehearsal techniques. Development of skills through class exercises and the rehearsal and performance of short projects and two-character scenes. Writing assignments including script analyses, character biographies, peer reviews, performance reviews, observation exercises, journals.
Prerequisites: None.
Usually offered: Annually, fall and spring semester.
Semester credits: 4.

TH 208 Contemporary Dance Forms II
Faculty: Theatre Faculty.
Content: Deepening exploration of physical techniques, historic events, and aesthetic concerns that shape contemporary dance today. Kinesthetic awareness, momentum, phrasing, weight sharing, authentic gesture, basic performance skills. Exploring basic improvisation and composition skills to give form to spontaneous and intuitive movement impulses. Reading, writing, viewing live performance. Live music accompaniment. May be taken twice for credit.
Prerequisites: TH 108 or consent of instructor.
Restrictions: Sophomore standing required, unless section number is preceded by an "F."
Usually offered: Annually, spring semester.
Semester credits: 2.

TH 212 Stagecraft
Faculty: Theatre Faculty.
Content: Advanced techniques and concepts in stagecraft. Explores the second-phase design process by which a set designer’s visual representations are transformed first into working drawings and construction problems, and then into material, three-dimensional forms. Classroom instruction and experiential learning in the scene shop. Emphasis on problem-solving, collaborative interpretation of design ideas, creative implementation.
Prerequisites: TH 110 or consent of instructor.
Restrictions: Sophomore standing required, unless section number is preceded by an "F."
Usually offered: Alternate Years, spring semester.
Semester credits: 4.
TH 213 Acting II, Realism
Faculty: Theatre Faculty.
Content: Rehearsal with more complex texts of realism from such playwrights as Ibsen, Chekhov, Churchill, Stoppard. Integration of voice and body work, deepening a sense of truth in emotional and intellectual expression. Actors work with instructor on individual acting problems, share research in texts and historical periods, learn how to help each other take acting explorations further. Writing: script analysis, historical research, bibliography, observations. Additional projects in movement and voice.
Prerequisites: TH 113.
Restrictions: Sophomore standing required, unless section number is preceded by an "F.
Usually offered: Annually, spring semester.
Semester credits: 4.

TH 214 Dance in Context: History and Criticism
Faculty: Theatre Faculty.
Content: Viewing of selected live dance performances in the Portland area. An exploration of the intellectual, historical, and social contexts of these performances. Foundation course for advanced work in the theory and aesthetics of design. Fee.
Prerequisites: None.
Restrictions: Sophomore standing required, unless section number is preceded by an "F.
Usually offered: Annually, spring semester.
Semester credits: 4.

TH 234 Stage Lighting
Faculty: Theatre Faculty.
Content: Understanding the physical properties of light, the technologies used to light the stage, and the principles and practices of lighting design. Topics include optics, color, electrical theory, lighting instruments, control systems, design concepts, light plots, script analysis for lighting. Readings, writing assignments, research projects, demonstrations, creative projects in light design.
Prerequisites: None.
Restrictions: Sophomore standing required, unless section number is preceded by an "F.
Usually offered: Alternate Years, spring semester.
Semester credits: 4.

TH 246 Special Topics: Design/Technical Theatre
Faculty: Theatre Faculty.
Content: Special topics in design and technical theatre. Course content and prerequisites vary by topic. May be taken twice for credit.
Prerequisites: None.
Restrictions: Sophomore standing required, unless section number is preceded by an "F.
Usually offered: Alternate Years, fall and spring semester.
Semester credits: 2.
TH 249 Oregon Shakespeare Festival
Faculty: Weeks.
Content: Focuses on a week of theatre-going (approximately nine plays) at the Oregon Shakespeare Festival in Ashland, Oregon. Three weeks of contextual study of the plays and their authors, including the study of appropriate cognate plays and authors; individualized research and project work; one week of play-going in Ashland; two weeks of post-performance writing and discussion. The week in Ashland features one-hour supplementary classes at Southern Oregon University, talks with actors and directors at OSF. Fee for a portion of the trip expenses.
