

STATEMENTS AND PAYMENTS

Statement of Student Account

The Office of Student and Departmental Account Services produces statements itemizing the activity on student accounts. The first statement of each semester is generated well before the beginning of the semester. Fall semester statements are available in July and spring semester statements are available in November. The fall deadline to settle student accounts is in mid-August. The spring deadline to settle student accounts is in mid-December.

Lewis & Clark distributes student account statements electronically through the Student Account Center and does not mail paper statements. Student and Departmental Account Services will send a notification to the student's Lewis & Clark email address when a new statement is available for viewing. The Student Account Center enables students to retrieve an electronic statement (eBill), view live account information, make a onetime payment or enroll in a monthly payment plan, elect refund preferences, and review refund information.

Students should verify all charges and credits listed. Certain forms of financial aid, such as Federal Direct PLUS Loans for parents and Federal Direct Subsidized and Unsubsidized Loans, are scheduled for disbursement at the beginning of each semester. Students who have been awarded any of these forms of aid, and who have completed the additional steps outlined in the award packet to secure loan funding, can consider their aid to be fully processed. Fully processed financial aid will appear as "Pending Financial Aid" on the student's account statement. Any remaining balance not covered by the net proceeds of fully processed financial aid is required to be paid by the due date if a payment plan has not been established.

The student account belongs to that individual and is in the student's name. Students bear the financial responsibility for their accounts, and any consequences resulting from an outstanding balance must be resolved by them rather than parents or guardians. Accordingly, Lewis & Clark will send a notification to students' Lewis & Clark email address when a new statement is available for viewing. Once a statement is available, students may log in to the Student Account Center to grant shared access to an authorized party to view statements, make payments, and enroll in a monthly payment plan.

Nonpayment of Charges

Students who have not settled their accounts will not be allowed to register or attend classes for future semesters. For an explanation of what it means to settle a student's account, please refer to the Student and Departmental Account Services: Settling Your Student Account page (http://lclark.edu/offices/account_services/settling_your_account/). Lewis & Clark reserves the right to withhold diplomas for outstanding balances. Existing registration for future terms may also be canceled as a result of an outstanding student account balance. Full payment of any balance due is required to facilitate the release of this document and/or clear a student for class registration. Additionally, past-due balances not covered by fully processed financial aid are subject to late fees. Lewis & Clark reserves the right to assess late fees to all past-due student accounts. Details regarding semester late fees are accessible under the Student and Departmental Account Services Fees page. (https://www.lclark.edu/offices/account_services/student_statements/Fees/)

Dishonored Payments

A $20 fee will be charged to the student's account for any payment returned by the bank to Lewis & Clark or its payment processing partner. This fee may not be reversed. Student and Departmental Account Services (http://lclark.edu/offices/account_services/) will send notice to the student of the dishonored payment. The student must make restitution and remit payment of the returned payment fee within 10 days following this notification. Lewis & Clark reserves the right to refuse a personal check for payment in certain circumstances.

Monthly Payment Option

To help students meet their educational expenses, Lewis & Clark has partnered with Nelnet Campus Commerce to administer a monthly payment plan. This plan allows students to pay both their fall and spring semester costs in five interest-free installments. Fall monthly payment plans begin July 10. Spring monthly payment plans begin December 10. There is no payment plan available for summer expenses. The expectation is that a student's monthly payment plan is active, accurately budgeted, and current. If these conditions are met by the semester due date, a Lewis & Clark student account is considered settled. To learn more about the payment plan option, visit the Settling Your Student Account (https://lclark.edu/offices/account_services/settling_your_account/) page and click on Monthly Payment Plan.

Lewis & Clark reserves the right to refuse a student enrollment in a monthly payment plan depending on past payment history.

Enrollment Deposit

A nonrefundable deposit of $500 is required from all students who intend to enroll at Lewis & Clark's College of Arts and Sciences. The postmark deadline for receipt of this deposit is May 1. This deposit will be applied against the first semester charges on the student's account.

Overseas and Off-Campus Study Deposit

Students accepted for overseas or off-campus study must pay a nonrefundable deposit of $300 within 30 days of acceptance to a program. This deposit will be applied against the charges for the overseas or off-campus program of study.

Late Registration and Payment

If a student's initial class registration occurs after the semester due date has passed, it is considered to be a late registration. In such cases, the student is required to settle anticipated semester charges, including any special course fees, at the time of class registration. Students should work with Student and Departmental Account Services to determine the anticipated semester charges to ensure that registration and payment occur simultaneously.
