THEATRE

Chair: Štěpán Šimek (fall 2021)
Chair: Rebecca Lingafelter (spring 2022)
Administrative Coordinator: Chelsea Bushnell

The Department of Theatre offers study in dramatic literature, theatre history, acting, directing, devising, playwriting, design, technical theatre, and dance. Theatre students are required to participate broadly in the curriculum. The department maintains an active production program, which includes Main Stage productions (one each semester), one-act festivals in the Black Box theatre, late-night theatre, and dance performances. Theatre study at Lewis & Clark encourages excellence in all aspects of performance and production—both onstage and behind the scenes—combined with an understanding of the aesthetic, social, philosophical, and historical underpinnings of our collaborative art form. The department’s goal is to educate artist-scholars who are well-rounded, well-trained, and intellectually informed. We see theatre and dance as integral parts of the liberal arts; our curriculum is designed to prepare broadly educated individuals for leadership roles in the arts and in society at large.

The department’s production program offers opportunities to put all of the theatrical arts into practice: acting, directing, playwriting, devising, and designing. Productions include new works, musicals, and a wide variety of contemporary, modern, premodern, and classical plays. The fall one-act festival normally consists of plays written, directed, acted, and designed by students. Our Theatre Thesis Festival allows senior majors the opportunity to mount a major creative project within a festival context. Student dramaturgs, designers, and stage managers assist with Main Stage productions. Additional opportunities are available through our formal classes, independent studies, and internships. Our dance program includes an annual dance performance called Dance Extravaganza, with choreography by both students and visiting artists. Dance students develop technical skills in conjunction with the study of aesthetics, history, and criticism. Both dance and theatre at Lewis & Clark are dedicated to nurturing a dynamic and diverse artistic and scholarly community. The department honors the diversity of our community and practices open casting: Students can fully participate in our productions regardless of ethnicity, race, religion, gender identity, sexual orientation, nationality, socioeconomic status, or disability. The department seeks to represent a diversity of voices on our stages.

Students also have the opportunity to participate in the regional Kennedy Center American College Theater Festival (https://kennedy-center.org/education/opportunities-for-artists/pre-professional-artist-training/kcastf/) (KCACTF) and the American College Dance Association (https://acda.dance) (ACDA).

Semester-long, off-campus programs emphasizing theatre, art, and music are held in New York and London. The New York program includes internships at institutions such as the Atlantic Theater Company (http://atlantictheater.org), Signature Theatre (https://signaturetheatre.org), Second Stage Theatre (http://2st.com), and Shen Wei (http://shenwei.art).

Lewis & Clark students are encouraged to take advantage of the many opportunities to see professional theatre and dance in Portland. Internships with Portland theatres such as Portland Center Stage, Hand2Mouth Theatre, Third Rail Repertory, CoHo Productions, PETE (Portland Experimental Theatre Ensemble), and others are available.

Students majoring in theatre must fulfill Lewis & Clark’s Creative Arts requirement (https://docs.lclark.edu/undergraduate/graduationrequirements/undergraduate/creative_artstext) outside the department—in art, creative writing, or music—and are strongly urged to pursue further studies in other areas of the arts. The department offers a minor with a concentration in either dance or theatre.

Facilities
The theatre building at Lewis & Clark is one of the finest teaching facilities for theatre in the Pacific Northwest. It is an integrated facility designed to support a process-oriented program. The building contains the 225-seat Main Stage and a studio theatre (Black Box) with flexible seating arrangements for up to 125. It also houses complete production facilities, including a scenery shop, design studio, costume-construction room, dressing rooms, rehearsal areas, and the Green Room student lounge.

The Major Program
Students interested in a theatre major are encouraged to participate in theatre department courses or activities in their first year and to consult with a member of the theatre faculty. Students should declare the theatre major by the end of the sophomore year.

The theatre department offers a balanced major that gives students flexibility in determining an area of emphasis. All theatre majors are required to take courses in dramatic literature and theatre history, theatre theory, performance, design, and dance or movement. Students majoring in theatre must choose a concentration in dramatic literature/theatre history, performance, or design/technical theatre.
Senior majors complete a thesis project that is the culmination of their studies in theatre. This project may be based in performance, production, or research.

Major Requirements: Concentration in Literature/Theatre History

A minimum of 46 semester credits—including 16 in dramatic literature and theatre history, 4 in performance, 4 in design, 4 additional credits in performance or design, 4 in dance, 4 in departmental electives, 4 in theatre and performance theory, 2 in theatre laboratory, and 4 in the capstone course—distributed as follows:

Honors

To qualify for departmental honors, students must demonstrate, in their first three years, outstanding achievement in one or more of the major's three concentrations: dramatic literature and theatre history, performance, or design and technical theatre. The required GPA is 3.500 overall and in the major. Theatre Department faculty will invite qualified students to apply for departmental honors in the beginning of the spring semester of their senior year. They must then demonstrate excellence in the capstone work of the Senior Seminar, achieving a B+ or above in both the creative project (if applicable) and written thesis. Theatre Department faculty will monitor an applicant's progress toward honors.

Courses

TH 104 Stage Makeup

Content: Principles and techniques of stage makeup, based on play and character analysis. Exercises to develop and refine the skill for actor, director, or makeup designer. Daily assignments, short paper critiquing the makeup skill of an off-campus production.

Prerequisites: None.

Usually offered: Alternate Years, spring semester.

Semester credits: 2.

TH 106 Fundamentals of Movement

Content: Use of guided movement explorations, partner work, readings, and discussion to explore structural and functional aspects of the body and anatomy with the goal of increasing efficiency of movement and physical coordination. Use of imagery supports dynamic alignment, breath, mobility/stability, relaxation, and partner work including massage, with a main focus on the skeletal system and elements of muscle and organ systems, as well as the relationship between the body and psychological/emotional patterns. Extensive journal writing.

Prerequisites: None.

Usually offered: Annually, fall and spring semester.

Semester credits: 4.

TH 201 Contact Improvisation

Content: Physical investigation into gravity, momentum, and weight sharing between two or more bodies. Specific skills such as falling, perching, and rolling point of contact; readings and video assignments help to place CI in a historical, social, and artistic context.

Prerequisites: TH 106.

Usually offered: Annually, fall semester.

Semester credits: 4.

TH 107 Ballet I

Content: Introduction to basic ballet principles, steps, and vocabulary.

Correct alignment, placement, mobility; increasing flexibility, balance, strength, coordination, control. Barre warm-up, center floor and traveling combinations, general introduction to ballet history and aesthetics. Readings in related historical material; written critique of live performance. Live music accompaniment.

Prerequisites: None.

Usually offered: Alternate Years, fall semester.

Semester credits: 4.

TH 108 Theatre Laboratory

Content: More behind-the-scenes work in the theatre. Participation on production crews for all departmental productions in a given semester. Experiential learning in the scene and costume shops, on lighting and front-of-house crews. Introduction to the processes that transform the visions of directors and designers into realities on stage. Weekly organizational and instructional meetings, arranged work schedule, required safety orientations. May be repeated (as TH 110B) for up to two additional 1-credit semesters with lab-only requirements, not to exceed 4 total course credits per student.

Prerequisites: None.

Usually offered: Annually, fall and spring semester.

Semester credits: 2.

TH 110A Theatre Laboratory

Content: Introduction to behind-the-scenes work in the theatre. Participation on production crews for all departmental productions in a given semester. Experiential learning in the scene and costume shops, on lighting and front-of-house crews. Introduction to the processes that transform the visions of directors and designers into realities on stage. Weekly organizational and instructional meetings, arranged work schedule, required safety orientations. Taught each semester. 1 semester credit with lab-only requirement. May be repeated once for credit.

Prerequisites: TH 110A.

Usually offered: Annually, fall and spring semester.

Semester credits: 1.

TH 113 Acting I: Fundamentals

Content: The fundamentals of acting, including physicalization, text analysis, objectives and actions, rehearsal techniques. Development of skills through class exercises and the rehearsal and performance of short projects and two-character scenes. Writing assignments including script analyses, character biographies, peer reviews, performance reviews, observation exercises, journals.

Prerequisites: None.

Usually offered: Annually, fall and spring semester.

Semester credits: 4.
TH 209 Social Dance Forms: History, Practice, and Social Significance
Content: Introduction to social dance forms, including ballroom and Latin styles: waltz, foxtrot, swing, cha-cha, tango, salsa, rumba, merengue, bachata. Students will learn the basic techniques of leading and following, footwork, body placement, stylization, etiquette, and musicality. Reading, lectures, and film will provide historical and social context for each dance.
Prerequisites: None. TH 106 recommended.
Usually offered: Alternate Years, fall semester.
Semester credits: 4.

TH 212 Stagecraft
Content: Advanced techniques and concepts in stagecraft. Explores the second-phase design process first which a set designer's visual representations are transformed first into working drawings and construction problems, and then into material, three-dimensional forms. Classroom instruction and experiential learning in the scene shop. Emphasis on problem-solving, collaborative interpretation of design ideas, creative implementation. Fee.
Prerequisites: TH 110.
Usually offered: Alternate Years, spring semester.
Semester credits: 4.

TH 213 Acting II: Realism
Content: Rehearsal with more complex texts of realism from such playwrights as Ibsen, Chekhov, Churchill, Stoppard. Integration of voice and body work, deepening a sense of truth in emotional and intellectual expression. Actors work with instructor on individual acting problems, share research in texts and historical periods, learn how to help each other take acting explorations further. Writing: script analysis, historical research, bibliography, observations. Additional projects in movement and voice.
Prerequisites: TH 113.
Usually offered: Annually, spring semester.
Semester credits: 4.

TH 214 Dance in Context: History and Criticism
Content: Viewing of selected live dance performances in the Portland area. An exploration of the intellectual, historical, and social contexts of these performances. Prerequisites: None.
Usually offered: Alternate Years, fall semester.
Semester credits: 4.

TH 217 Voice and Movement
Content: This class will introduce students to a range of vocal and physical techniques for creative expression in performance. Through a series of exercises, trainings, and performances, students will have the opportunity to reduce habitual tensions, connect their movement and voice to imagery and text, and increase the strength, flexibility, and dynamic of their voices and bodies in performance. The class will cover techniques drawn from a wide variety of voice and movement philosophies including Linklater, Suzuki, Grotowski, Alexander, yoga, and others.
Prerequisites: TH 113.
Restrictions: Sophomore standing required.
Usually offered: Alternate Years, spring semester.
Semester credits: 4.

TH 218 Fundamentals of Design
Content: Introduction to the expressive principles, components, and processes of design. Projects and exercises explore conceptualization of story-based ideas as well as introduce the challenges and rigors of collaboration. Basic visual communication and expressive forms for theatre practitioners, but the skills involved are widely applicable to all design disciplines. Foundation course for advanced work in the theory and aesthetics of theatrical design. Fee.
Prerequisites: None.
Restrictions: Sophomore standing required.
Usually offered: Annually, fall and spring semester.
Semester credits: 4.

TH 219 Dance Technique: Application of Fundamental Principles and Imagery Content: Builds on concepts and principles introduced in TH 106 Fundamentals of Movement. Precision work in exercise sequences including floor, center, and locomotor movements that use contemporary dance vocabulary. Emphasis on a somatic approach that supports organic movement. Application of imagery and anatomical knowledge in technical and improvisational explorations. Students will hone basic performance skills as well as continue development of sound body mechanics, strength, flexibility, control, musicality, phrasing, sequencing, partner work, and weight sharing.
Prerequisites: TH 106.
Usually offered: Annually, spring semester.
Semester credits: 4.

TH 220 Theatre Graphics
Content: Basic graphic techniques necessary for successful communication within the design and production areas of theatre. Projects and exercises in drawing, rendering, model building, color theory, and drafting. Introduction to visual communications and expressive form for theatre practitioners, but the skills involved are widely applicable to all design disciplines. Foundation course for advanced work in the theory and aesthetics of design. Fee.
Prerequisites: None.
Usually offered: Annually, spring semester.
Semester credits: 4.

TH 234 Stage Lighting
Content: Understanding the physical properties of light, the technologies used to light the stage, and the principles and practices of lighting design. Topics include optics, color, electrical theory, lighting instruments, control systems, design concepts, light plots, script analysis for lighting. Readings, writing assignments, research projects, demonstrations, creative projects in light design.
Prerequisites: None.
Usually offered: Alternate Years, spring semester.
Semester credits: 4.

TH 244 Practicum/Internship
Content: Field experience extending classroom learning into non-curricular production opportunities, apprenticeships, or internships. Additional readings and/or writing may be required. Off-campus work will require cooperation with an on-site supervisor. Credit-no credit. May be repeated for credit, but will be counted toward the major or minor by department approval only.
Prerequisites: None.
Restrictions: Sophomore standing and consent required.
Usually offered: Annually, fall and spring semester.
Semester credits: 1-4.
TH 246 Special Topics: Design/Technical Theatre
Content: Special topics in design and technical theatre. Course content and prerequisites vary by topic. May be taken twice for credit.
Prerequisites: None.
Restrictions: Sophomore standing required.
Usually offered: Alternate Years, fall and spring semester.
Semester credits: 2.

TH 250 Theatre in New York
Content: Contemporary theatre in New York including traditional and experimental work, American plays, plays from the international repertoire. Attending and discussing productions.
