Arts requirement

Students majoring in theatre must fulfill Lewis & Clark's requirements. This includes participation in the Department of Theatre, which offers a variety of courses and opportunities in dramatic literature, theatre history, acting, directing, devising, playwriting, design, technical theatre, and dance. Theatre students are required to participate broadly in the curriculum. The department maintains an active production program, which includes Main Stage productions (one each semester), one-act festivals in the Black Box theatre, late-night theatre, and dance performances. Theatre study at Lewis & Clark encourages excellence in all aspects of performance and production—both onstage and behind the scenes—combined with an understanding of the aesthetic, social, philosophical, and historical underpinnings of our collaborative art form. The department's goal is to educate artist-scholars who are well-rounded, well-trained, and intellectually informed. We see theatre and dance as integral parts of the liberal arts; our curriculum is designed to prepare broadly educated individuals for leadership roles in the arts and in society at large.

The department's production program offers opportunities to put all of the theatrical arts into practice: acting, directing, playwriting, devising, and designing. Productions include new works, musicals, and a wide variety of contemporary, modern, premodern, and classical plays. The fall one-act festival normally consists of plays written, directed, acted, and designed by students. Our Theatre Thesis Festival allows senior majors the opportunity to mount a major creative project within a festival context. Student dramaturgs, designers, and stage managers assist with Main Stage productions. Additional opportunities are available through our formal classes, independent studies, and internships. Our dance program includes an annual dance performance called Dance Extravaganza, with choreography by both students and visiting artists. Dance students develop technical skills in conjunction with the study of aesthetics, history, and criticism. Both dance and theatre at Lewis & Clark are dedicated to nurturing a dynamic and diverse artistic and scholarly community. The department honors the diversity of our community and practices open casting: Students can fully participate in our productions regardless of ethnicity, race, religion, gender identity, sexual orientation, nationality, socioeconomic status, or disability. The department seeks to represent a diversity of voices on our stages.

Students also have the opportunity to participate in the regional Kennedy Center American College Theater Festival (https://kennedy-center.org/education/opportunities-for-artists/pre-professional-artist-training/ kcaftf/) (KCACTF) and the American College Dance Association (https://acda.dance) (ACDA).

Semester-long, off-campus programs emphasizing theatre, art, and music are held in New York and London. The New York program includes internships at institutions such as the Atlantic Theater Company (http://atlantictheater.org), Signature Theatre (https://signaturetheatre.org), Second Stage Theatre (http://2st.com), and Shen Wei (http://shenwei.art).

Lewis & Clark students are encouraged to take advantage of the many opportunities to see professional theatre and dance in Portland. Internships with Portland theatres such as Portland Center Stage, Hand2Mouth Theatre, Third Rail Repertory, CoHo Productions, PETE (Portland Experimental Theatre Ensemble), and others are available.

Students majoring in theatre must fulfill Lewis & Clark's Creative Arts requirement (https://docs.lclark.edu/undergraduate/graduationrequirements/generaleducation/#creative_artstext) outside the department—in art, creative writing, or music—and are strongly urged to pursue further studies in other areas of the arts. The department offers a minor with a concentration in either dance or theatre.

Facilities

The theatre building at Lewis & Clark is one of the finest teaching facilities for theatre in the Pacific Northwest. It is an integrated facility designed to support a process-oriented program. The building contains the 225-seat Main Stage and a studio theatre (Black Box) with flexible seating arrangements for up to 125. It also houses complete production facilities, including a scenery shop, design studio, costume-construction room, dressing rooms, rehearsal areas, and the Green Room student lounge.

The Major Program

Students interested in a theatre major are encouraged to participate in theatre department courses or activities in their first year and to consult with a member of the theatre faculty. Students should declare the theatre major by the end of the sophomore year.

The theatre department offers a balanced major that gives students flexibility in determining an area of emphasis. All theatre majors are required to take courses in dramatic literature and theatre history, theatre theory, performance, design, and dance or movement. Students majoring in theatre must choose a concentration in dramatic literature/theatre history, performance, or design/technical theatre.
Senior majors complete a thesis project that is the culmination of their studies in theatre. This project may be based in performance, production, or research.

Major Requirements: Concentration in Literature/Theatre History

A minimum of 46 semester credits, distributed as follows:

- TH 110A Theatre Laboratory

The Minor Program
The theatre department offers two minor programs, one that focuses on theatre studies and one that focuses on dance studies. As an integral part of a performing-arts program, the dance minor requires courses in dance and theatre.

Minor Requirements: Concentration in Theatre Studies
A minimum of 26 semester credits, distributed as follows:

- TH 110A Theatre Laboratory
- 8 semester credits in dramatic literature and theatre history chosen from the following:
  - TH 280 Theatre and Society: Global Foundations
  - TH 283 Theatre and Society: Modern Continental Drama
  - TH 382 American Theatre and Drama: 19th Century to Present
  - TH 383 Topics in Global Theatre and Performance
  - TH 385 Special Topics Seminar: Plays and Playwrights
- 16 semester credits in departmental electives

Minor Requirements: Concentration in Dance
A minimum of 26 semester credits, distributed as follows:

- TH 106 Fundamentals of Movement
- TH 110A Theatre Laboratory
- TH 308 Dance Composition and Improvisation
- 4 semester credits in dance forms/history chosen from the following:
  - TH 209 Social Dance Forms: History, Practice, and Social Significance
  - TH 214 Dance in Context: History and Criticism
- 8 semester credits in dance technique, chosen from the following:
  - TH 107 Ballet I
  - TH 108 Contemporary Dance Forms
  - TH 201 Contact Improvisation
  - TH 219 Dance Technique: Application of Fundamental Principles and Imagery
  - TH 352 Choreography and Production: Dance Extravaganza
- 4 semester credits chosen from the following:
  - TH 113 Acting I: Fundamentals
  - TH 234 Stage Lighting
  - TH 356 Devised Performance

Honors
To qualify for departmental honors, students must demonstrate, in their first three years, outstanding achievement in one or more of the major's three concentrations: dramatic literature and theatre history, performance, or design and technical theatre. The required GPA is 3.500 overall and in the major. Theatre Department faculty will invite qualified students to apply for departmental honors in the beginning of the spring semester of their senior year. They must then demonstrate excellence in the capstone work of the Senior Seminar, achieving a B+ or above in both the creative project (if applicable) and written thesis. Theatre Department faculty will monitor an applicant’s progress toward honors.

Faculty

Courses
TH 104 Stage Makeup
Content: Principles and techniques of stage makeup, based on play and character analysis. Exercises to develop and refine the skill for actor, director, or makeup designer. Daily assignments, short paper critiquing the makeup skill of an off-campus production.
Prerequisites: None.
Usually offered: Alternate Years, spring semester.
Semester credits: 2.

TH 106 Fundamentals of Movement
Content: Use of guided movement explorations, partner work, readings, and discussion to explore structural and functional aspects of the body and anatomy with the goal of increasing efficiency of movement and physical coordination. Use of imagery supports dynamic alignment, breath, mobility/stability, relaxation, and partner work including massage, with a main focus on the skeletal system and elements of muscle and organ systems, as well as the relationship between the body and psychological/emotional patterns. Extensive journal writing.
Prerequisites: None.
Usually offered: Annually, fall and spring semester.
Semester credits: 4.

TH 107 Ballet I
Content: Introduction to basic ballet principles, steps, and vocabulary. Correct alignment, placement, mobility; increasing flexibility, balance, strength, coordination, control. Barre warm-up, center floor and traveling combinations, general introduction to ballet history and aesthetics. Readings in related historical material; written critique of live performance. Live music accompaniment.
Prerequisites: None.
Usually offered: Alternate Years, fall semester.
Semester credits: 4.

TH 201 Contact Improvisation
Content: Introduction to modern and postmodern dance forms, physical techniques, and principles. Emphasis on the conceptual nature of contemporary dance since the 1960s. Movement skills and perspectives in relation to historic and aesthetic ideas that fostered them. Development of sound body mechanics, strength, flexibility, control, momentum, movement quality, musicality, personal movement resources. Viewing live and videotaped performances. Short readings on dance history and theory. Live music accompaniment.
Prerequisites: None.
Usually offered: Alternate Years.
Semester credits: 4.

TH 110A Theatre Laboratory
Content: Introduction to behind-the-scenes work in the theatre. Participation on production crews for all departmental productions in a given semester. Experiential learning in the scene and costume shops, on lighting and front-of-house crews. Introduction to the processes that transform the visions of directors and designers into realities on stage. Weekly organizational and instructional meetings, arranged work schedule, required safety orientations. May be repeated (as TH 110B) for up to two additional 1-credit semesters with lab-only requirements, not to exceed 4 total course credits per student.
Prerequisites: None.
Usually offered: Annually, fall and spring semester.
Semester credits: 2.

TH 110B Theatre Laboratory
Content: More behind-the-scenes work in the theatre. Participation on production crews for all departmental productions in a given semester. Experiential learning in the scene and costume shops, on lighting and front-of-house crews. Introduction to the processes that transform the visions of directors and designers into realities onstage. Weekly organizational and instructional meetings, arranged work schedule, required safety orientations. Taught each semester. 1 semester credit with lab-only requirement. May be repeated once for credit.
Prerequisites: TH 110A.
Usually offered: Annually, fall and spring semester.
Semester credits: 1.

TH 113 Acting I: Fundamentals
Content: The fundamentals of acting, including physicalization, text analysis, objectives and actions, rehearsal techniques. Development of skills through class exercises and the rehearsal and performance of short projects and two-character scenes. Writing assignments including script analyses, character biographies, peer reviews, performance reviews, observation exercises, journals.
Prerequisites: None.
Usually offered: Annually, fall and spring semester.
Semester credits: 4.

TH 202 Contact Improvisation
Content: Physical investigation into gravity, momentum, and weight sharing between two or more bodies. Specific skills such as falling, perching, and rolling point of contact; readings and video assignments help to place CI in a historical, social, and artistic context.
Prerequisites: TH 106.
Usually offered: Annually, fall semester.
Semester credits: 4.
TH 209 Social Dance Forms: History, Practice, and Social Significance
Content: Introduction to social dance forms, including ballroom and Latin styles: waltz, foxtrot, swing, cha-cha, tango, salsa, rumba, merengue, bachata. Students will learn the basic techniques of leading and following, footwork, body placement, stylization, etiquette, and musicality. Reading, lectures, and film will provide historical and social context for each dance.
Prerequisites: TH 106 recommended.
Usually offered: Alternate Years, fall semester.
Semester credits: 4.

TH 212 Stagecraft
Content: Advanced techniques and concepts in stagecraft. Explores the second-phase design process by which a set designer’s visual representations are transformed first into working drawings and construction problems, and then into material, three-dimensional forms. Classroom instruction and experiential learning in the scene shop. Emphasis on problem-solving, collaborative interpretation of design ideas, creative implementation. Fee.
Prerequisites: TH 110A.
Usually offered: Alternate Years, spring semester.
Semester credits: 4.

TH 213 Acting II: Realism
Content: Rehearsal with more complex texts of realism from such playwrights as Ibsen, Chekhov, Churchill, Stoppard. Integration of voice and body work, deepening a sense of truth in emotional and intellectual expression. Actors work with instructor on individual acting problems, share research in texts and historical periods, learn how to help each other take acting explorations further. Writing: script analysis, historical research, bibliography, observations. Additional projects in movement and voice.
Prerequisites: TH 113.
Usually offered: Annually, spring semester.
Semester credits: 4.

TH 214 Dance in Context: History and Criticism
Content: Viewing of selected live dance performances in the Portland area. An exploration of the intellectual, historical, and social contexts of these performances. Development of a vocabulary for dance criticism and an understanding of the essential elements of dance choreography and performance. Readings; analysis of videotaped, filmed, and live dance performances; seminar discussion. Fee (performance tickets).
Prerequisites: None.
Usually offered: Alternate Years, fall semester.
Semester credits: 4.

TH 217 Voice and Movement
Content: Introduction to a range of vocal and physical techniques for creative expression in performance. Through a series of exercises, trainings, and performances, students will have the opportunity to reduce habitual tensions, connect their movement and voice to imagery and text, and increase the strength, flexibility, and dynamic of their voices and bodies in performance. The class will cover techniques drawn from a wide variety of voice and movement philosophies including Linklater, Suzuki, Grotowski, Alexander, yoga, and others.
Prerequisites: TH 113.
Restrictions: Sophomore standing required.
Usually offered: Alternate Years, spring semester.
Semester credits: 4.

TH 218 Fundamentals of Design
Content: Introduction to the expressive principles, components, and processes of design. Projects and exercises explore conceptualization of story-based ideas as well as introduce the challenges and rigors of collaboration. Basic visual communication and expressive forms for theatre practitioners, but the skills involved are widely applicable to all design disciplines. Foundation course for advanced work in the theory and aesthetics of theatrical design. Fee.
Prerequisites: None.
Restrictions: Sophomore standing required.
Usually offered: Annually, fall and spring semester.
Semester credits: 4.

TH 219 Dance Technique: Application of Fundamental Principles and Imagery
Content: Builds on concepts and principles introduced in TH 106 Fundamentals of Movement. Precision work in exercise sequences including floor, center, and locomotor movements that use contemporary dance vocabulary. Emphasis on a somatic approach that supports organic movement. Application of imagery and anatomical knowledge in technical and improvisational explorations. Students will hone basic performance skills as well as continue development of sound body mechanics, strength, flexibility, control, musicality, phrasing, sequencing, partner work, and weight sharing.
Prerequisites: TH 106.
Usually offered: Annually, spring semester.
Semester credits: 4.

TH 220 Theatre Graphics
Content: Introduction to the expressive principles, components, and aesthetics of theatrical design. Fee.
Prerequisites: None.
Usually offered: Annually, spring semester.
Semester credits: 4.

TH 224 Practicum/Internship
Content: Field experience extending classroom learning into non-curricular production opportunities, apprenticeships, or internships. Additional readings and/or writing may be required. Off-campus work will require cooperation with an on-site supervisor. Credit-no credit. May be repeated for credit, but will be counted toward the major or minor by department approval only.
Prerequisites: None.
Restrictions: Sophomore standing and consent required.
Usually offered: Annually, fall and spring semester.
Semester credits: 1-4.
TH 246 Special Topics: Design/Technical Theatre
Content: Special topics in design and technical theatre. Course content and prerequisites vary by topic. May be taken twice for credit.
Prerequisites: None.
Restrictions: Sophomore standing required.
Usually offered: Alternate Years, fall and spring semester.
Semester credits: 2.

TH 250 Theatre in New York
Content: Contemporary theatre in New York including traditional and experimental work, American plays, plays from the international repertoire. Attending and discussing productions. Meeting with playwrights, actors, directors, designers, producers to investigate current trends in theatrical writing, production, criticism. Offered on the off-campus program in New York.
Prerequisites: None.
Restrictions: Sophomore standing and acceptance into the New York City off-campus program required.
Usually offered: Annually, fall semester.
Semester credits: 4.

TH 251 Theatre in London
Content: Contemporary theatre in London including traditional and experimental work, American plays, plays from the international repertoire. Attending and discussing productions. Meeting with playwrights, actors, directors, designers, producers to investigate current trends in theatrical writing, production, criticism. Offered on the London overseas program.
Prerequisites: None.
Restrictions: Sophomore standing and acceptance into London overseas program required.
Usually offered: Alternate Years, spring semester.
Semester credits: 4.

TH 252 Rehearsal and Performance: Dance Extravaganza
Content: Faculty-supervised rehearsal and performance of original dance pieces developed by student choreographers. Works in progress critiqued by faculty at regular intervals throughout the semester. Approximately 10 weeks of rehearsals held two to three times a week, one to two progress showings for the supervising faculty, and four public performances.
Credit/no credit. May be repeated four times for credit.
Prerequisites: None.
Restrictions: Audition.
Usually offered: Annually, fall semester.
Semester credits: 1-2.

TH 253 Rehearsal and Performance: One-Acts
Content: Faculty-supervised rehearsal and performance of selected one-act plays and senior thesis projects, organized in various formats: student written, student directed; professionally written, student directed; professionally written, guest artist directed. Limited scenic support.
Credit/no credit.
Prerequisites: Audition.
Usually offered: Annually, fall and spring semester.
Semester credits: 1-3.

TH 275 Introduction to Playwriting
Content: Introduction to dramatic writing. Examination of dramatic action, dialogue, characterization, and structure; emphasis on writing for the stage. Reading assignments from classical, modern, and contemporary plays as well as from commentaries on the playwright’s art, Aristotle to the present. Students write scenes and exercises throughout the semester, culminating in a final project.
Prerequisites: None.
Usually offered: Alternate Years, fall semester.
Semester credits: 4.

TH 280 Theatre and Society: Global Foundations
Content: Survey of the premodern global history of theatre and performance from its earliest ritual manifestations to the late 18th century. Performance traditions, plays, theories, and dramatic expressions from Europe, the Middle East, Africa, and Asia. Emphasis will be placed on the reciprocal relationship between drama/performance and religion, the state, civil society, and the individual. Students will study primary materials, read and analyze plays, examine documentary and pictorial evidence, and engage both intellectually and creatively with the material. Reading, discussion, research, papers, exams, and creative projects.
Prerequisites: None.
Usually offered: Alternate Years, fall and spring semester.
Semester credits: 4.

TH 283 Theatre and Society: Modern Continental Drama
Content: Focus on modern continental theatre from Buchner to contemporary European playwrights. Realism, expressionism, surrealism, Dada, Theatre of the Absurd, and continental postmodernism. Special attention to the theatre and social contexts of eastern and central Europe and Germany.
Prerequisites: None.
Usually offered: Alternate Years, spring semester.
Semester credits: 4.

TH 299 Independent Study
Content: Opportunities for well-prepared students to design and pursue a course of independent readings or creative work in a substantive area. Details determined by the student and supervising instructor. May be repeated for credit.
Prerequisites: None.
Restrictions: Sophomore standing and consent required.
Usually offered: Annually, fall and spring semester.
Semester credits: 1-4.

TH 301 Directing
Content: Preliminary text analysis, preparation and staging of play texts. Exercises and scene work exploring the director’s basic techniques, tools, and procedures.
Prerequisites: TH 213.
Restrictions: Junior standing required.
Usually offered: Annually, fall semester.
Semester credits: 4.
TH 308 Dance Composition and Improvisation
Content: Studio work in compositional exploration and the investigation of movement and sound in solo and group improvisation. Critical evaluation and analysis of work in progress. Organization and design of dance studies for class presentation and future choreography. Reading, writing, and theory; attend performances.
Prerequisites: TH 108. One other dance course.
Corequisites: TH 308L.
Restrictions: Sophomore standing required.
Usually offered: Annually, spring semester.
Semester credits: 4.

TH 313 Acting III: Style
Content: Advanced techniques in acting associated with, and demanded by, the drama of particular periods and genres. Acting "style" explored through the study of a period's theatrical conventions and cultural preferences (in physical movement, bodily display, vocal technique, fashion). Emphasis on premodern styles, including Shakespeare and commedia dell'arte. Some modern and contemporary nonrealistic styles.
Prerequisites: TH 113.
Restrictions: Sophomore standing required.
Usually offered: Alternate Years, spring semester.
Semester credits: 4.

TH 335 Scenography: Design for Performance
Content: Authorship through performance design, practice, and theory informed by a variety of disciplines including theater, puppetry, choreography, performance art, experience design, sculpture, media, and architecture. The designer utilizes a multiplicity of skills and tools to analyze, research, develop, and create visual worlds that tell a story in collaboration. Exploration of aesthetics will touch on the ancient and historical world leading into the 20th and 21st centuries. Students will create unique performance environments while working on graphic, model-making, and presentation skills grounded in dramaturgy.
Prerequisites: TH 218, TH 220, or any studio art class.
Restrictions: Sophomore standing required.
Usually offered: Alternate Years, spring semester.
Semester credits: 4.
